——The churches were well attended on Sunday, and some most excellent sermons were delivered.

——Can you skate? is the question of the hour. Everybody is trying to be able to answer it in the affirmative.

——The burned store of Zacharias, on Hargett street, is soon to be rebuilt, or rather a handsome store will go up in its place.

——A meeting of the Northern settlers in Wake county, in response to a call of the Charlotte Convention, will be held in Metropolitan Hall Saturday February 15th, at 2 o'clock p m.

——The address of Col. N. Dumont, of Charlotte, on immigration before the Legislature last night, by invitation of the Committees on Agriculture and Immigration, was a valuable production, a synopsis of which will appear in to-morrow's issue.

Macon's bivalves have a wide reputation. They are always fresh, sound and select. The people appreciate Mr. Macon and his oysters, and sometimes draw on him heavily. Once they got away with 350 gallons in one day. It was the biggest "haul" of the season.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT—Court meets next Monday. There is, as usual, a heavy docket. The bastardy docket will be taken up and then the criminal docket.

PERSONAL.—F. H. Hubbard, Esq., with Messrs. Jno. F. Henry, Curran & Co., one of the largest wholesale drug houses in New York city, is in the city and one of the best gotten up salesmen that visits this State.

A VALUABLE INVENTION.—Mr. S. B. Waller, of Salem, N. C., has on exhibition at Lumsden's store, one of the best inventions of the day. It is remarkable for the simplicity and ease with which it is worked. The results are equally remarkable. Those who are looking out for chances to make money will do well to call on him.

THE HILLSBORO RECORDER.—We are requested by the Editor of the Hillsboro Recorder to say that owing to the sickness of the foreman, and also of a compositor of the office, there will be no issue of the paper this week. The outside was worked off and the inside matter set up; but there is not force enough to get the paper through the press.

OFF FOR THE WORKHOUSE.—Six negroes, who were convicted of various offences at the late term of the Criminal Court, and sentenced to the workhouse, were yesterday given, by county courtesy, a free ride to that institution. They will there enjoy the delights of rural life, not unmixed with the pleasures of labor, for various periods of time, from one month to a year.

FUN AHEAD.—The energetic ladies of the Edenton street Methodist Church have arranged for a charming little entertainment for the benefit of the building fund of their new Sunday School hall. The affair is to be a "Mother Goose Reception" and Valentine party, and will be held on the 13th and 14th, Thursday and Friday evenings. There will be an abundance of things good to eat, in addition to the festivities. Don't fail to go, have some fun, and half a worthy cause.

THE PATTISON ENTERTAINMENT.—To judge from the number of seats engaged in advance (some two hundred) Mr. Pattison will be greeted by one of the largest audiences of the season. We have heard of Mr. Pattison and can fully endorse all that is said of him in the northern press. We sincerely hope that the capital of the State will encourage every effort to give the people entertainments of refinement and artistic excellence by subscribing liberally to the evening with the great musician, to induce the greatest American Pianist, to appear before our people.

It is reported that the day of the entertainment is fixed on the 27th inst., provided the necessary number of seats are engaged. For particulars, see subscription lists and circulars at the Book and Drug Stores.

Money to Loan.

Mr. W. M. Sanders at his new grocery store on Wilmington St. is actually selling flour, meal, corn, bacon, coffee, sugar and other groceries so cheap that he promises to lend everybody all the money they need, if they will call to his store, hitch their horses in his stall and do not agree with him. *

The Tucker House.

This hostlery has not long been opened, but has already made itself a favorite here and with the traveling public. The fare is good, the rooms favorable, while the location is very convenient. These many advantages are appreciated. *

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.—Opinions were filed by the Justices on yesterday as follows:

BY SMITH, C. J.

A. R. Mason vs Rachel McCormick, et al, from Bladen; Judgement Reversed.

State vs Emanuel Leak, from Richmond; Judgment reversed.

Charles M. Bonham vs Thomas Craig et al, from New Hanover; Affirmed.

L. A. Paschall, Administrator vs L. H. Bullock, from Granville; Affirmed.

BY ASHE, J.

State vs H. A. Davis et al from Orange; Judgment Affirmed.

M. E. Walker vs W. P. Dicks, from Forsyth; Error. Reversed.

State vs Sewell Gillespie, from Iredell; No error.

BY DILLARD. J.

State vs Whitson Waller et al, from Catawba; Venire de novo.

H. Brunhild & Bro. vs J. H. Freeman et al, from New Hanover: Venire de novo.

State vs A. A. Smith, from Yadkin; Judgment reversed and bill of indictment abated.

State vs A. J. Spurtin et al, from Alleghany; Appeal dismissed.

YOUTHFUL REPROBATES.—A singular fact was presented to the eye of a looker-on at the Mayor's Court yesterday, where there were arraigned a number of offenders, and this was the preponderance of young faces among those of the peace breakers. One of these was a negro boy only 10 years of age, charged with burglary. On Sunday night he was going in a dwelling house through a window which he had forced, when he was caught by the occupant of the house. He is, it is true, an exceptional case, but it shows how bad some of the boys are. This one was turned over to the tender mercies of a member of his family, and given a terrible thrashing.

Another case was that of a small white boy, about the age of the other, for larceny. He, too, was whipped.

Yet another case was that of two boys, one of them quite young for theft of some $80, from a man while in the guard house. The younger took half the money, as the price of silence. Both these were sent on to court. After so long a period of quiet in criminal matters here, it is singular that boys should have so rudely disturbed it, by committing deeds which are generally left to their elders. But it is a fact and a sad one, and shows to what an extent youthful depravity goes.

THE COLORED INDUSTRIAL ASSOCIATION.—The colored people have organized an Industrial Association for the purpose of promotiug industry and education among their own race. They propose holding in this city annual exhibitions of the products of their own labor, and to award such premiums for articles exhibited as they may be able. The object in view is a good one and we are glad to learn that Messrs. Geo. Allen & Co., of Newberne through E. R. Dudley, effor the following premiums:

For the largest yield of lint cotton per acre grown and cultivated by a colored man, 1 Atlas, or Stonewall plow or steel sweep as may be preferred. A similar premium for the largest yield of corn, rice and hay per acre. Another premium has been offered of $1.00 in gold for the best map of N. C., drawn by a colored boy or girl in N. C., under 18 years. A similar premium for the best map of North America drawn by a colored person educated in North Carolina without regard to age. It is hoped that these premiums will be increased to at least $5.00 each.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock on yesterday. Present. Chief Justice Smith, and Justices Ashe and Dillard.

Appeals from the 9th district were called as follows:

David P. Adams vs. W. H. Thomas, et al, from Jackson. Reference ordered. Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe for plaintiff, and Gilliam & Gatling for defendants.

State and J. H. Townsend vs W. M. Edney, from Henderson, Argued by Attorney General Kenan for State and C. M. McLoud and M. E. Carter for defendant.

State vs David Barnwell from Buncombe. Argued by Attorney General Kenan for State, and Reade, Busbee & Busbee, C. M. McLoud, and M. E. Carter for defendant.

State vs C. P. McGidsey, from Buncombe. Argued by Attorney General Kenan, J. L. Henry and Theo. F. Davidson for plaintiff, and M. E Carter, J. H. Merrimon and C. M. McLoud for the defendant.

Court adjourned until this (Tuesday) morning at 10 o'clock.

A BAD PRACTICE.—From time to time certain gentlemen, not unkindly disposed toward the boys, but rather wishing to them a service, complain to the city editor of the bad behavior of certain young men at the churches. To characterize such a habit or such actions as reprehensible, would not express the view which sensible and well disposed people take of such conduct. To disturb the devotions of a congregation is perhaps as poor a pastime as the most degenerate boy could wish for. It is to be hoped that much if not most of these misdeeds are committed not out of sheer badness of heart but in the way of a prank. Boys, and older people too, are often so careless of other people's feelings and wishes, that they do not reflect upon their bad behavior. But the trouble has really grown to be an evil here, and at some of the churches the evening services are marred by the noisy talk and improper gestures of some boys, who it is hoped are merely thoughtless. The people, however, take the matter so hard, that tired of messures gentle but inefficacious, they declare they will invoke the law's aid, and have the ill-behaved youths before the grand jury. So be warned in time.

THE COTTON TRADE.—Yesterday was, as is usual on Monday, a dull day in dealings in this staple. There were but a small number of bales in market. Prices were steady. This market does not participate in the falling off of receipts so noticeable at some places, as the receipts are some 1,600 in advance of last year's. Charlotte's had fallen off, so a paper of that city stated a few days past, some 7,000 bales. Raleigh is always lucky, anyhow you fix it.

RESOLUTIONS

were introduced by Messrs Reid of McDowell, Ardrey and Orchard.

BILLS

were introduced by Messrs. Cole, York, Armstrong Lutterloh, Carroll, Atkinson, Covington and Christmast.

CALENDAR.

On motion of Mr. Venable, and under a suspension of the rules, the bill to establish a public road in Stokes county passed its readings.

Resolution in regard to ill treatment of convicts on the State public works, and instructing committee on Internal Improvements to investigate the matter, passed.

Bill to protect holders of policies in fire insurance companies by requiring such companies to deposit $10,000 in U. S. bonds with the Treasurer, and upon failure to settle any loss in 90 days the amount shall be taken from the deposit. Mr. Bernard spoke of the bill as giving a proper protection to home people and home companies. Mr. Covington explained the full purport of the bill, and it passed its readings.

Bill to empower the commissioners of Haywood county to build a pour house, passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg, the calendar was placed at the disposal of the Speaker.

The bill to allow the commissioners of Caldwell county to levy a special tax, not to exceed $3 500, passed its final reading.

Bill to incorporate the town of Burgaw, Pender county, passed its second reading.

Bill to repeal the law in regard to laying off the homestead and personal property exemption, and re-enact that of 1869, was tabled.

Bill to amend the law in regard to divorce passed its final reading.

WAKE CRIMINAL COURT.

Bill to take away the Criminal Court from Wake county. Mr. Richardson, of Wake, spoke of the court as a burden upon the people, who desired its abolition. Mr. Turner favored the bill, as did Messrs. Blocker, Wynne and Lewis. Mr. Covington moved to postpone the matter. Messrs. Blocker and Mebane desired action at once.

Mr. Richardson wished speedy action. Mr Covington said that sufficient reasons had not been adduced before the Judiciary Committee to lead them to think that the court should be abolished. Mr. Jones said that if the court was abolished some court must be established to attend to its business, as prior to the holding of this criminal court the civil docket in the Superior court was never finished. It is patent that to repeal the law will bringing about this same state of affairs. But for this court the civil docket could never be touched except by an almost continuous special term. Mr Moring said the House should be well informed. This is not a matter that affects Wake county alone, but the State. The court has been established 2 years, and I know that before that time a civil suitor never got his case tried except a special term. These terms cost great sums, more than the Criminal Court. The Board of Justices met the other day and they made no recommendation for the abolition of the court. The county of Wake has a horde of criminals and jail birds turned loose on her. Mr. Lindsay thought Inferior courts would answer the needs of the county. Mr. Covington favored postponement. Mr. Vaughan said the bill made no provision for transfer of cases, and this would be at the expense of the county. He had opposed the formation of the court, but after the committee had passed upon it, he thought it should not be hurriedly passed through. Mr. Lewis thought it strange that the same 50 Justices had met and not recommended the abolition of the court. He thought action should be postponed until Tuesday. Mr. Anderson moved that the bill be re-referred to the committee.

The motion to re-refer was opposed by Mr. Carroll who animadverted upon the legal profession. To him replied Mr. Cook, who went on to say that the people had begged for the court. The ridings of the judges had been altered to suit this state of affairs. Now they find they have an expensive luxury, but how is it to be abolished. Mr. Richardson said that the people, two years ago, had not desired the establishment of the court. He sent in an amendment, transfering the cases to the Superior Court.

Mr. Ardrey favored postponement. There were then some amusing passages between gentlemen in the agricultural and legal lines, on account of the complimentary remarks.

Mr. Ferrell spoke in favor of the bill, desiring present action.

The motion to re-refer to the Judiciary Committee was then lost by a vote of 44 to 35.

The motion to postpone until Tuesday was then lost, by a vote of 45 to 28.

The bill amended by Mr. Richardson of Wake, to transfer all cases to the Superior Court, was then adopted.

The bill then came up on its second reading and passed, but was not put on its final reading, as objection was made.

Bill to aid in the construction of the Caldwell and Watauga, N. G. R. R., by allowing levy of tax etc., passed its second reading.

Bill to incorporate the town of Matthews, Mecklenburg county, passed its second reading.

LIQUOR IN HALIFAX COUNTY.

Bill to prohibit sale of spirituous liquors in Halifax county, save by druggists.

Mr. Reynolds sent in an amendment that the matter be submitted to a vote of the people in that county. Mr. Covington said the use of whiskey should be stopped in that county, where it was so common a beverage, and its sale should be forbidden. Mr. Reynolds said if the law passed bar-rooms would spring up around the border of the county. Let the people judge whether they wish the law. Mr. Cook spoke of the propriety of the passage of the bill, for there was no place where it was more needed.

The amendment of Mr. Reynolds was then lost.

Mr. Norment moved to amend by saying North Carolina instead of Halifax. This was adopted.

The bill then failed to pass its second reading.

Mr. Holt moved that the vote by which the bill failed to pass its second reading be reconsidered, and a motion was made to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Norment's amendment was adopted. To this Mr. Norment spoke in opposition. The House reconsidered.

Mr. Norment moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment of Mr. Reynolds failed to be adopted, and upon this called the ayes and nays, when the House decided to reconsider. Upon the adoption of the amendment the ayes and nays were asked by Mr. Reynolds, when the amendment passed by a vote of 45 to 34.

Mr. Jones moved to indefinitely postpone the matter, and it was so postponed.

On motion of Mr. Covington the use of the Hall was tendered Mr. Dumont, for the delivery of a lecture upon emigration and agriculture.

At 3 p. m. the House adjourned.

$13,000 on the People.

Many Citizens.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 10th.

Your correspondent "Many Citizens" seems to be a chronic growler, and like a snail in his shell, has no other aspiration than to take care of himself. He complains of the tax Wake county contributes to build that great State work, the "Western North Carolina Railroad" over the mountains. We don't hear him complain of the taxes other counties contribute to keep up the several asylums and Penitentiary in and around Raleigh, by which "Many Citizens" realize considerable profit; nor do we hear of his complaining of the contribution the State has made in constructing the Raleigh & Gaston, the North Carolina and the Air Line Railroad. All of these centering in Raleigh and bringing to its merchants the productions of every part of the State. Let me ask the grumbler, what was the population of Raleigh before the Railroads were built. What was the amount of capital invested in mercantile pursuits, and what was it that induced owners of real estate, in and around Raleigh to expend large sums of money in building extensive store houses, and costly dwellings? Was it not that these Railroads were making and are still making Raleigh the great inland centre of the trade of the State. The extension of the Western North Carolina Railroad will add largely to the prosperity of the whole State and Wake county will receive her share of the blessing. The extension of the Fayetteville road will also open up a large and magnificent country for which Raleigh will come in for its share, and the new scheme of a road from Sanford to Charlotte will also be of incredeble benefit to Raleigh, greatly more so than a road to "Rocky Mount," as "Many Citizens" would like have, and I suppose tax other counties to build probably for his accommodation.

I hope the five Wake county members will not be frightened from doing their duty to the State at large, by the croakings of these correspondents, who assume to subscribe humbly "Many Citizens." Why look at the late meeting of your fellow citizens on the subject of Internal Improvement. The largest tax payers of the city were present, and to a man advocated these very measures. They understand their interest and are not like "Many Citizens," a "penny-wise and a pound foolish." A MOTHER CITIZEN.

Consistency.

Correspondence of the News.

A prominent member of the General Assembly stated not two months since that if his Radical opponent had been posted and had used against him his vote in the last Legislature in favor of the subsidy of $230,000 to the Western N. C. R. R. (that is in favor of the Mortgage Bond Holders of that road who really get the benefit) he not only would have been overwhelmingly defeated but his county would have been represented in both branches of the General Assembly this year by Radicals.

Now sirs, that gentleman is not only striving to keep that huge burden on the backs of our people, but he has been instrumental in working up the appropriation of $50,000 to another Railroad, the object being plainly a log-rolling combination to secure more votes to keep the Western N. C. R. R. subsidy from being repealed.

Now the Radicals are awake. Their wits will be sharpened by the Presidential election next year. Can the Democratic party carry two railroad subsidies through the next campaign? The people expect and demand relief. Shall office holders and railroad manipulators be allowed to pile up the burdens?

The people ask bread, shall they be given a stone? Let a halt be called ere the startling cry be heard, "To your tents O, Israel; We have no part in David and no inheritance in the house of Jesse." VOX POPULI.

Kissing in New England.

From a New Haven Statute of 1669.

"Whosoever shall inveigle or draw the affections of any maide or maide-servant, either for himself or others, without first gaining the consent of her parents, shall pay to the plantation for the first offence 40s; the second £4; for the third shall be imprisoned or corporeously punished." Under the law, at a court held in May 1690, Jacobeth Murline and Sarah Tuttle were prosecuted "for sitting down on a cheste together, with his arm around her waist, and her arm upon his shoulder or about his neck, and continuing in that sinful posture about half an hour, in which time he kyssed her and she kyssed him, or they kyssed one another as ye witnesses testified."

Counting Her Out Again.

St. Louis Times-Journal

The Cincinnati Commercial has formally entered John Sherman as a candidate for President, but so far, has refrained from any expression in behalf of Eliza Pinkston for Vice-President.

THE WAY IT WAS DONE.—A vast amount of revenue for the support of the National Government is raised by taxing the productions of the Southern States—liquor and tobacco—and efforts have long been made to reduce the tax on tobacco especially, and about the time they seemed about to be successful, the Northern Republicans and Democrats got up a scheme to give all the soldiers engaged on the Federal side in the late war an increased pension, requiring from one to two hundred millions of dollars in addition to last year's expenses, thus killing off not only all prospect of reducing the tax on tobacco or anything else, but really creating a necessity for an increase of revenue from some quarter.

That is the way relief to Southerners is prevented—the way our "Northern brethren" prevent pensioning Southern Mexican war soldiers, and the way Northern Democrats and Republican members of Congress make electioneering capital for themselves in their own section of the Union.—Charlotte Democrat.

Ewing on Our Finances.

Washington Post.

"What can you tell me General," said the Post to Gen. Ewing yesterday, "about this proposition to issue greenbacks for the payment of arrearage of pensions?"

"I intend at the first opportunity to move a suspension of the rules with a view of introducing and passing a bill, for the re-issue for that purpose of the greenbacks which have been retired."

"Your scheme differs from that of Sparks', then, in that it provides for legal tenders. Sparks proposes to divest his $40,000 of the legal tender quality."

"Yes, some people hold to the idea that an issue of greenbacks in time of peace would be unconstitutional, and, strange as it may seem, are oblivious to the fact that the Government is issuing them daily.',

"How?"

"Why, greenbacks are going in and out of the Treasury daily; they are received and paid out in the transaction of public business. Every such payment is an issue of legal tenders, and I am surprised that persons who hold that view cannot perceive this plain fact. Once concede the power to continue paying greenbacks out of the Treasury, as is now done daily, and you concede all; but out of defence to these scruples my bill will provide for the re-issue of that portion of the original $400,000,000 of greenbacks that has already been in circulation and since retired."

"How many have been retired?"

"Fifty-three million and some hundreds of thousands. I don't remember the exact amount."

"Will you make your motion next Monday?"

"Probably I can get the floor then—certainly the Monday after. I am No. 6 on the list for suspension of the rules."

"By the way, General," said the Post, "What was the nature of your currency resolutions, and what action did the caucus take on them last Monday night?"

"The first was for unlimited coinage of the standard silver dollar. This was carried by a vote of 4 to 1."

"And the second?"

"Was for the substitution of legal tenders for bank notes. This was amended by striking out 'legal tenders' and inserting "Treasury notes," and as amended was adopted by a vote of 6 to 1."

Indiana Legislation.

Washington Post.

The Indiana legislature is seriously considering a bill, reported from the senate judiciary committee, which forbids certain classes to marry. Among those denied admission to the benedictine fold are habitual drunkards, persons affected with certain transmissible diseases, persons who have given evidences of hereditary insanity, persons who have been twice convicted of crime and those who are mentally incapacitated to provide for themselves. The object aimed at is commendable. Marriage of persons afflicted with hereditary diseases, physical or mental, or those who cannot provide for a family, is a fruitful source of misery and social disorder. But it will be found very difficult to enforce such a statute. To ascertain whether a candidate for marriage is an habitual or only an occasional drunkard, whether a disease is transmissible or otherwise, whether a man is or is not mentally incapable of making a living—any or all of these questions will often be exceedingly difficult of solution.

Schaefer, King of the Cue.

New York Star.

The last of the series of twenty-eight games of the "World's Championship Billiard Tournament" was played on the night of the 9th at Cooper Institute, between Jacob Schaefer and George Slosson, both of Chicago, the result of the playing of the past three weeks having brought them into competition in the race for first prize. Schaefer had won six games and lost none, while Slosson had won five games and lost one. In the contest between the men heretofore, Slosson has always been victorious, having defeated Schaefer in match games at Indianapolis, St. Louis, Chicago, and in the tournament held at Tammany Hall some time ago.

The game occupied one hour and thirty minutes and comprised seven innings, with the following score—Schaefer—12, 0, 1, 1, 5, 283, 298. Total, 600. Average, 85, 5-7. Slosson—15, 9, 0, 71, 0, 464, 12. Total, 571. Average, 81 4-7. Time of game, 1h. 30m.

This gives Schaefer first prize—the championship cup and $1,000; Slosson, second prize, $600; Sexton and Daly, tie for third prize, the loser to take fourth prize. It is not yet settled when the tie will be played off.

The Fraudulent President.

New York Nation (Independent.)

The best portion of Mr. Hayes supporters will read with genuine pain the revelations made in the Senate on Monday about his mode of using the Custom-house for the reward of his personal followers. Considering the professions with which he solicited and obtained the votes of reformers, his forcing the author of a 'Campaign Life' on the Collector of this port as a deputy was a performance which it is difficult to characterize in moderate language. There is no denying that if you insist on dismissing men from office for too great political activity you must be careful not to appoint them to office for political services, and that Mr. Hayes has left himself, to a certain extent, at the mercy of the Stalwarts, and incapacitated himself for anything like complete reform of the civil service, by distributing offices wholesale among the large and by no means respectable body who took part in the canvass and "count" by which he obtained the Presidency, is only too true.

The Case Against Hayes.

Washington Post.

We cheerfully admit the claim of the Radical press that the Potter Committee has not shown any direct personal complicity on Mr. Hayes' part in the Presidential steal. But the fact that the stolen office is in his possession, in connection with the further fact that the theives have been paid by him, makes out a case as "strong as proofs from holy writ." Thousands of men have been hung on weaker evidence.

WE are informed that Col. Wm. IN a recent interview with a Cincinnati reporter, Mr. Pullman said his company now operated in this country and Europe about eight hundred cars, of an average value of $14,000 apiece, or a total of $11,200,000, the capital stock of the company being $6,000,000. THE Lockwood bill, giving women authority to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, passed the Senate Friday by a vote of two to one. The bill passed as it came from the House, and provides that "any woman who shall have been a member of the bar of the highest court of any State or Territory, or of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, for the space of three years, and shall have maintained a good standing before such court, and who shall be a person of good moral character, shall, on motion, and the production of such record, be admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States."

How would the Swedish liquor law do? In Sweeden one liquor saloon is allowed for every five hundred inhabitants of a city, or for a village containing less than that number. All licenses are sold at auction, so that the local government obtains their actual value, and not merely a license-fee. Besides this advantage, it is evident that a dealer who has paid a fair price for his license will be slow to sacrifice it by a violation of the law, and will be interested in preventing illegal sales by others. Any person ob aining a license is obliged to give public notice of the place where he intends to pursue his rade, and if the owners of half the property situated within two hundred feet of that place remonstrate against the sale of liquor in their vicinity, the dealer will be required to establish himself elsewhere. In this way a good neighborhood is protected, and a liquor-dealer once established finds it to his interest to keep such order that his neighbors will not complain. This system, however, will not apply to any city or town where the inhabitants have established total prohibition. The law is said to work admirably in Sweden. A largely increased revenue is one result.

The Tobacco Tax Question.

There is no question now before Congress which so immediately concerns the interests of the Southern people as that of the reduction of the tax on tobacco. The question concerns the three very important classes of producer, consumer and manufacturer; the second least of all; but the other two vitally. The producer is, to a certain extent, denied the benefits of a prompt, active and lucrative market, because the manufacturer, in the uncertain states of the question of reduction, does not feel justified in buying or in manufacturing more than enough to meet immediate demand. The effect is a stagnation which lays upon the whole section devoted to tobacco culture and to its manufacture.

The tax upon tobacco, as a product of agriculture, is an anomaly in a government restrained constitutionally from unequal imposition of burdens. In its raw state, it is no more the subject of taxation than wheat, corn, or cotton. This last, from the magnitude of its product, and because it was peculiarly a Southern crop, was at first the subject of a heavy tax that hurt other sections besides the South, and it was soon relieved. But tobacco has found no such friendly or interested advocates, and aided somewhat by that pernicious intermeddling reformatory mania which recognizes in tobacco a formidable foe to morality, it has had to contend from the moment it ripened in the field to the time of its final transfer to the hand of the ultimate consumer with the hostile movement of every ingenious device of taxation.

As a subject of revenue, it may be yielded, that as a manufactured article, it was properly made to contribute something to the support of the government. But it can never be yielded, that whatever the necessities of the general government, that any one legitimate pursuit should be mercilessly oppressed, particularly when that oppression bore most heavily upon the people least able to bear it. While therefore the South has been content to submit to a moderate import. Self preservation demanded resistance to one that ultimately would aid in the ruin of the interests most directly involved. Hence the persistent efforts to bring down the tax within supportable limit.

At last the Senate Committee has agreed to report the reduction of the rate fixed in the bill which passed the House last Spring. The report of the committee is especially gratifying, because it avoids an anticipated delay from the need of a conference committee; it having been believed that the report would first be for 20 cents, and that a conference would ultimately fix it at what is now agreed upon, which is sixteen cents.

As but little of the session is now left, it may be supposed that there will be speedy action on the report. There is some anticipation of stout resistance; yet it is claimed that forty-two Senators are unequivocally committed to the bill, while not more than thirty are decidedly opposed to it.

If it should pass in its present form a weight will be lifted from the prodigious interest of tobacco, and again the wheels of business which have been clogged by the dead weight of an uncertain future, may be started again.

Mr. Tilden.

Whether this gentleman will ever again be the Democratic candidate does not now so much concern us as the fact that he was not unworthy of the support which the Southern people so heartily gave him when he was their candidate before. His failure to urge more vigorously his right to his seat to which he was beyond a doubt entitled, abated the esteem of a people with whom courage is one of the brightest of virtues; and the association of his name with the secret transactions which made the purchase of electoral votes a part of practice regarded as legitimate by the other side, insensibly wrought a tarnish upon his fair fame in the minds of those who exalted as high a standard for political as for personal honor.

By degrees, the good name of Mr. Tilden is being vindicated. He has proven not to have been a party to, or even an approver of the Electoral Commission which involved the surrender of his title. And now, in the inquisition of the cipher dispatches, he comes out of the ordeal of investigation innocent and immaculate.

Mr. Tilden has been made to suffer because he had about him in a somewhat confidential capacity, a nephew, Wm. T. Pelton, a gentleman of marvellous self importance, who, though not in specially close relations with the Democratic executive committee, presumed to act as if he carried the whole burden of responsibility upon his shoulders; and seeing how the Republicans dealt with men, and deemed every one purchasable, thought it smart to set on foot similar processes to control electoral boards, putting in bids that he supposed might tempt the very elect; yet without a cent in hand, and not very well knowing even where he was to begin the operation of raising the means. This was done without the privity of Mr. Tilden, Pelton not daring to intimate to him his secret purposes. Pelton testifies that no cipher dispatches relating to money negotiations in connection with the purchase of the South Carolina or Florida electors were ever shown to Mr. Tilden, because he knew Mr. Tilden would at once put a stop to them.

Mr. Tilden may not be a candidate again. We cannot say that he is our choice. But we do know now without a doubt that when a candidate he was not unworthy of the support he received. He was basely cheated out of his seat; and his enemies have added to their crime by blackening the character of their victim. That character is now vindicated. But we very much fear that the distrusts instilled so persistently will not soon be effaced.

THE VERITABLE black death of the middle ages on the eastern border of Russia, is killing, it is reported, ninety-five per cent. of those whom it attacks, and alarming the Russian Government so much that it is using large bodies of troops to form a sanitary cordon one thousand miles long, and is burning the villages and the clothing of the inhabitants in which it has appeared. It is reported to carry off its victims in from four to ten hours. In the town of Vetlianka, in the government of Astrakhan, in which it first appeared, it slew 400 persons at once out of 1,700, and the rest fled, leaving the dead unburied. At Prishibe it killed 520 out of 830 inhabitants in two weeks, and it spreads even in thinly settled localities with great rapidity. In one quarter it advanced thirty miles in four days. The alarm has not only passed through Russia but reached Germany, where rigid quarantine precautions are being taken on the frontier.

The Western Rail Road.

Correspondence of the News.

It was mentioned in your issue of the 9th that the bill for the extension of this road, and for other purposes, had passed its second reading on Friday; your local columns of the same issue gave information of its passage on Saturday on its third reading by a large majority.

With a majority of those who opposed the bill, there was nothing of a factious temper, and in truth a generous sympathy with the objects to be effected; only there was a tender and somewhat overstrained consciousness upon the subject of adding additional burdens to the people. For this economic sentiment we have the highest appreciation, and accord to all those gentlemen who were actuated by it, all the credit due to the perfect sincerity of their connections, and the manly and able expression of them. Yet we cannot withhold our expression of opinion that they permitted sentiment to mislead reason, and that in their zeal to shield our good old State from additional burdens, they lost sight, for the time, of sound business principles. The question was one of the plainest that could be presented: Whether the State, already a large partner in a work, her interests in which had been preserved to her without cost, by the labor, the means, the integrity, the perseverance and the intelligence of her private copartners, should, when that work was at last freed from all embarrassments and all danger of future litigation except what was connected with the costs of the successful controversy, be willing, when asked to give her aid to enable these costs to be paid, to do so; or whether to avoid the apparent risk or extravagance of a further venture, let go her hold upon her property, let it be sold for its trifling liabilities, let her own citizens, as in many former instances, lose all they had ventured, and let the road, as others have done, pass into foreign control. Further; whether the State, by the pledge of her faith for the small sum of fifty thousand dollars, made to save her own property, should deny to her own people the meagre aid asked to open up a country, one of the finest sections of the State, now practically cut off from markets, and doing so to the jeopardy of no conflicting interest.

We are sure that those gentlemen who acted upon their conscientious convictions in opposing the bill will submit to their defeat graciously. They fought it without enmity. They did their duty to their consciences and to their constituents; and failing to carry out their own views, have generosity to congratulate the other side for its victory and good sense enough to know that a good work is done without harm to the State or burdens entailed upon the people. The Vote For the Railroad Subscription on Saturday Last.

Correspondence of the News.

Your paper, inadvertently of course, did not give the ayes and noes by which the railroad appropriation of $50,000 dollars was passed on Saturday. The people of North Carolina ought to see the roll. We are already taxed $230,000 equal to fifteen cents on the $100 of all the assesed taxable property of the State to pay our annual subsidy to build the Western N. C. R. R. for the benefit of the holders of its mortgage bonds. This additional $50,000 is equal to three and a half cents more on the hundred dollars and is evidently intended as a measure to keep the other burden steady. We do not mean to say that a tithe of those who voted for the measure so regarded it. Most of them are as well intentioned as we are. They have been misled by the wily getters up and manipulators of this scheme. These two railroad subsidies now amount to $280,000 a year besides the labor of 600 convicts i. e. more in in one year out of an impoverished people than our entire State taxes were for the whole four years from 1846 to 1850.

In the last campaign, Governor Vance, a most popular leader, only carried the State by 13,000 majority. A change of 6,500 Democrats or about three per cent of the vote will give this State to the Radicals and the Union to Grant. Does any one believe that $280,000 of railroad subsidies per year will not sicken 3 per cent. of our voters. It is 18½ cents on the $100 of taxation and touches the pocket nerve severely.

Here is the vote in the House. Let the Senate stand firm and save the State.

AYES.—Anderson, Arngier, Ardry, Armstrong, Atkinson, Beadle, Berry, Blaisdell, Blocker, Bonner, Brown, of Mecklenburg, Bruce, Bryson, Cale, Carter, of Buncombe, Carter, of Warren, Cary, Chadwick, Clarke, Cofield, Council, Covington, Davis, of Haywood, Ellison, English, Ewing, Ferry, Foster, Foy, Fulcher, Gholston, Harrell, Henderson, Holt, Huffstetler, Jones, Leatherwood, Lutterloh, McLean, Norment, Orchard, Rawley, Reid, of Macon, Reynolds, Richardson, of Wake, Ritchey, Taylor, Venable, Waddell, White, Wimberly—51.

NOES.—Amis, Barringer, Bateman, Buchan, Bird, Burroughs, Carter, of Yancey, Carrol, Christmas, Click, Colwell, Cooke, Deans, Dimsdale, Dunn, Forbes, Gatling, Harrison, Hines, Leach, Lewis, Lindsay, Mebane, Mielcon, Osborne, Paxton, Powers, Richardson, of Columbus, Roberson, Smith, Turner, Wheeler, Woodhouse, Wynne, Young—35.

Motives that Control Him.

Washington Post,

No regretful feeling, no qualms of conscience, no symptoms of disgust are apparent in Mr. Hayes as, one after another, he appoints the vile tools of Wm. P. Kellogg to places of trust and responsibility. As he obeys the mandates of this man whom he dare not thwart, he seems to put in his work with cheerful alacrity as if such degradation of the office that Washington, Jefferson and Jackson covered with honor were congenial employment. Motives such as influence burglars in dividing the spoils of a successful job compel Mr. Hayes to to "tote fair" with Kellogg. He has not courage enough to even hesitate, and show disinclination to register the decrees of Kellogg and the rest of the crew, to whom he is mortaged; and whose commands he must obey. Fifty thousand dollars a year is a great sum of money, but when one remembers what Mr. Hayes has to do to secure it, the pay seems small enough.

The Western Fish Hatcheries.

Correspondence of the News.

WESTERN N. C. R. R., Feb 5.

We next visited the North Carolina State Fish Hatchery, situated just beyond the top of the mountain. This institution is under the supervision of Mr. Stephen D. Worth who was not present, but the young man in charge (we have forgotten the name) very kindly showed us the fish ponds, the different stages in hatching the eggs, &c. This establishment since the 10th of December last has distributed three hundred thousand trout and salmon in Catawba, Yadkin, Dan and Broad rivers and their tributaries. The railroad, with the exception of a few short fills (which was left for the gravel train to fill up) is graded from Swannonoa Tunnel to Grey Eagle Station a distance of four miles. There is a post office at this place of the same name of the Station, Mr. S M Daughtery, post-master. This gentleman is merchandising and seems to be doing a good business. The scenery from Grey Eagle is grand and picturesque, it is the nearest point on the line of railroad to the Black mountain it being only twelve miles from here to the top of Mitchel's peak. One mile farther towards Asheville is "Tomahawk Stockade," Capt. J. M. Jones has charge of the convicts quartered here, we spent Wednesday night with him. The captain boasts of having the most intelligent convicts on the mountain work. He has in his stockade an Ex-Episcopal minister, an Ex-Deputy Sheriff, an Ex-Financial Traveler and a graduate of one of the best colleges of the South.

On Thursday morning we began to retrace our footsteps to Henry Station and arrived here this evening at one o'clock.

After visiting every stockade and every foot of railroad from Henry to Tomhawk Stockade, a distance of fifteen miles by railroad, we are of the opinion that the work done very cheap and the employees of both the railroad and penitentary authorities are doing their whole duty and are working for wages at "retrenchment and reform" figures, but as the present Legislature are cutting down salaries and fees, beg pardon for offering a few suggestions. We think several thousand dollars could be saved annually by abolishing the position of Supt. of Construction, who receives fifteen hundred dollars and the position of Superintendent of Blacksmith shop, who receives seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum. The duties of Superintendent of Construction could be transferred to Maj. Atkinson, Superintendent of the convicts and the duties of Superintendent of Shops can be performed by convicts. We think the Superintendent of Construction should be engineer of the works. Maj. Wilson the President of the road, besides the duties of engineer has to perform the duties of three former officers, why not let Maj. Atkinson, Superintendent of Convicts, perform the duties of Superintendent of Construction and engineer. He is a civil engineer and has a great deal of experience in surveying railroad routes, etc. Of course his salary should be raised. The railroad and Penitentiary authorities have combined the position of overseer and guard and thereby save several thousand dollors annually and we see no reason why the positions mentioned should not be combined.

Five miles below Tyler, Texas, several panthers are running loose, and have created much excitement. The neighboring school has been broken up, parents fearing to send their children lest they be attacked on the way. It is supposed the recent severe weather drove them in.

A Japanense View of American Politics.

From the New York Evening Post.

Mrs. Coles, daughter of Senator Thurman, who is with her husband, a naval officer, in Japan, has just been entertained at the palaces of the governor. Three days afterward the governor accepted the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Coles for dinner—a thing never heard of before in Japan. This extraordinary compliment, it is said, was owing to the fact that when Minister Yoshida went home from Washington he said Mrs. Coles' father was to be the next Emperor of the United States.

Vegetine

FOR

CHILLS, SHAKES,

FEVER AND AGUE.

TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

DR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I feel very grateful for what your valuable medicine, Vegetine, has done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873, which left him with Hip-joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the "Louisville Courier-Journal," that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken fifteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a younger son, fifteen years of age, who is subject to chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like the most of the medicines recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Respectfully, MRS. J. W. LLOYD.

VEGETINE—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I have been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon and, to my great surprise, I have a thick crop of young hair.

[illegible] PORRANCE, U. S. A.

For every important respect the Kathairon is wholly incomparable. It is unequaled

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

Fidelity.

"One eve of beauty, when the sun
Was on the stream of Gandalquivir,
To gold converting one by one,
The ripples of that mighty river,
Beside me on the bank was seated
Seville girl with dark brown hair
And eyes that might the world have cheated,
As wild, bright, wicked, diamond fair.

"She stooped, and wrote upon the sand,
Just as the loving sun was going,
With such a fair, white, shining hand,
I could have sworn 'twas silver flowing:
Her words were these, and not one more,
What could Juanita's motto be?
The Syren wrote upon the shore,
Death, not Inconstancy!"

"And then her two large, languid eyes
So fell on mine, that devil take me!
I could have quit the world with sighs,
And was the fool she choose to make me.
St. Francis would have been deceiv d
With such an eye and such a hand;
But one week more, and I believed
As much the woman as the sand.

Monday's Bairn is fair of face;
Tuesday's Bairn is full of grace;
Wednesday's Bairn is the child of woe;

AT THE INDEFATIGABLE ENDEAVORS TO PLEASE THE PUBLIC SO HERE GOES.

Ye muses nine, inspire my pen,
To sing of Fayetteville streeet, No 10,
who tries his best to please his friends
And in his labors never ends,
Bargains he'll give you when you call
For No. 10 is all and all.
Of other houses you hear them talk;
In Fayetteville street just take a walk
And only ask for No. 10,
Kept by the most ingenious of men,
And when his friends by chance drop in
Then forth he comes, Lord what a grin,
And to their wondering eyes displays
Such heaps of brackets and window shades.
His pictures are exposed to public view
And a variety of cord to suspend them too,
His looking glasses and toilet cases
Will help adorn your forms and faces;
Picture frames and mouldings too
In great variety, black, brown and blue.
His window cornices and lambrequins fine,
will make your rooms and parlor shine.
Perforated mottoes, and white holly baskets.
And every other sort of stuff,
Of which he hopes to have enough.
So now he bids your all adieu
And wishes a happy new year too.
And not forget

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. MCLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

BLOOD

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. MERRELL'S HEPATINE, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of all diseases that arise from poison in the blood. Not one case of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Disease, in a thousand, is treated without the use of Mercury in some form. Mercury rots the bones, and the diseases it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease can be. DR. PEMBERTON'S STILLINGIA or QUEEN'S DELIGHT is the only medicine upon which a hope of recovery from Scrofula, Syphilis and Mercurial diseases in all stages, can be reasonably founded, and that will cure Cancer.

$10,000 will be paid by the proprietors if Mercury, or any ingredient not purely vegetable and harmless can be found in it

IN SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS.

ONE DOLLAR ONE DOLLAR

THE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE DIAMONDS

Lefevre Ring, $1. Set of Studs, $1. [The Shah] Stud, $1. Lefevre Ear Drops, $1.

THE ONLY PERFECT FAC-SIMILE OF THE REAL DIAMOND IN THE WORLD.

Pronounced by the Academy of France that M. Lefevre has really obtained artificially the true diamond. The basis of these gems are pure crystals found in the Sierra Novadas, from whence they are exported to the Lefevre Laboratory in Paris, France, where they are submitted to a chemical and voltaic process,

BY WHICH THEIR SURFACES ARE COVERED WITH A COATING OF PURE DIAMONDS, imparting to them all the BRILLIANCY, HARDNESS, and refractive qualities of the natural diamond, and making them as desirable for Wear, Brilliancy, and Beauty, as the veritable gems themselves. The Ring, Studs, and Ear Drops, as displayed in this announcement, are accurate engravings of SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS, CONTAINING THE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE DIAMOND, warranted by certificate U. S. Mint assay.

ON RECEIPT OF ONE DOLLAR we will send free, by REGISTERED MAIL, to any address in America, either article as above represented. Our "Book on Diamonds," with illustrations of artistic Diamond Jewelry in solid (14 k.) gold, mailed free.

I have seen many imitations of diamonds, but never any that could equal the Lefevre Brilliant.—M. ELLROY, Stamford, Conn.

I am in receipt of a pair of the Wonderful Lefevre Ear Drops, for one dollar; to say that I am pleased with them hardly fills the bill, they are simply elegant.—ANDREW MORRIS, Hornellsville, N. Y.

The Wonderful Lefevre Diamond Ring, for one dollar, came to hand this morning, it is really elegant, giving entire satisfaction, and eliciting notice and admiration from all who see it.—W. H. REEDY, Martinsburg, W. Va.

The Lefevre Diamonds, mounted in solid gold, are truly marvelous.—B. F. AVERY & SONS, Home and Farm, Louisville, Ky.

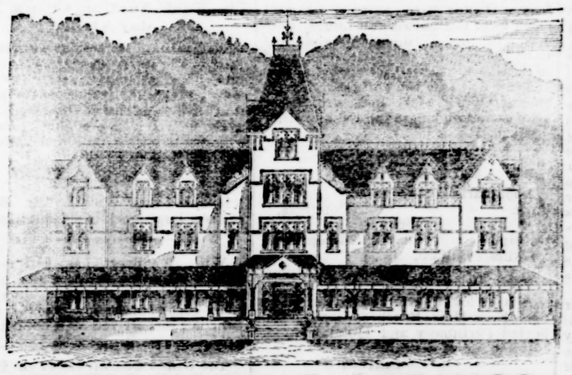

The eminently successful experiments of M. Lefevre silences all doubt of the artificial reproduction of the true diamond.—M. DE PRENOY, the great French Scientist.

The Lefevre Diamond most effectually disturbs the slumbers of the possessors of costly gems.—Journal of Science.

☞ We guarantee the Wonderful Lefevre Diamonds for One Dollar to be mounted in Solid Gold, and will cheerfully refund the money if found unsatisfactory. Address all orders to the News Telegrams.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—SENATE.—Spencer presented joint resolutions of the Alabama Legislature, favoring an appropriation for the removal of obstructions from Mobile Bay, and for the improvement of navigation of the various rivers in Alabama Referred to Committee on Commerce.

Withers, of Virginia, presented a petition of the Catholic Young Men's Nat. Union, protesting against the discrimination made by the U. S Government in the appointment of chaplains in the army and navy, by which Catholic soldiers and seamen are deprived of the benefit of their religion, and in appointment of Indian agents, whereby vast numbers of Indians who are Catholics are placed in charge of denominations in which they have no interest or confidence. Referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. He also presented a petition of Beverly H. Robinson, for the removal of his political disabilities.

The House bill authorizing the issue of certificates of deposit in aid of the refunding of the public debt, was taken up, and after being amended so as to make the rate of interest four per cent. was passed.

Senator McCreery addressed the Senate in favor of the transfer of the Indian office from the Interior to the War Department. The Senate and galleries were crowded to excess during the delivery of his speech.

The Senate confirmed Goodson M. Roberts as Post Master at Ashville, N. C.

The House was principally engaged in discussing Legislative, Executive and Judicial appropriation bills.

The Potter Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The Potter Committee will meet to-morrow, when Judge Southwood will be called to testify to certain acts of bribery in Louisiana. At a meeting of the Democratic members Saturday, it was proposed to subpœna Swause, who it was alleged received $450 for his testimony before the sub committee at New Orleans. This was over ruled, however, on the ground that his statement had already received sufficient contradiction, and that if Swause were called it would necessitate the hearing of a number of other witnesses, and take up much time. After Judge Southwood has been examined, Hon. Randolph Tucker, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the disappearance of certain cipher telegrams from one of the committee rooms here, will be allowed to make an explanation and then the investigation of the cipher telegrams will be resumed. Woolley will be summoned from Cincinnati, and two or three other witnesses will be heard, whose names have not yet transpired. Exertion will be made to conclude the investigation this week, so as to give time for the preparation of reports of each side. It is understood as having been decided to lay one before the House.

The Plague Continues.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Reports from Russian villages continue to give alarming statements of the prevalence of the plague and other epidemic disorders.

Resignation of Christiancy.

DETROIT, Feb. 10.—The resignation of Christiancy as Senator from Michigan, has been placed in the hands of the Governor to take effect at noon today.

The Sunday Train Law.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 10.—A telegram says, all the trains on Ohio and Mississippi R. R. were detained at Flora, Ills. from 6 a m to 6 p m yesterday by the enforcement of a vigorous Sunday law.

Receiver to be Appointed.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 10.—An argument on the general creditors of bills, representing city bonds to the amount of $2,500,000 was heard this morning by Judge Baxter of the United States District Court. The Judge announced his determination to appoint a receiver to-morrow.

The Criminal Court of Wake County.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, N, C., Feb. 10.

The bill to abolish this court came up in the House yesterday and passed its second reading. Many people are surprised at this because the uniformed were of opinion that the court was a necessity and well managed one to the people and to the business interest of the county. But from the savage way in which some members wait for the court, one would suppose it to be a perfect star chamber. It was further said that nine-tenths of the whole people of the county desired the passage of the bill; if these facts are true the bill should pass, but are they true? I will not attempt to answer the first point for it bears its own reputation. As to the second, I desire to state a few plain facts. As to the expense of the court the same fees are allowed as in the other courts, so there can be no saving there and it has been shown by actual statement of accounts that even after paying Judge Strong's salary the county has been saved by quick trials a sum amounting to about two thousand dollars per annum. This statement was made last summer in the campaign when the Radicals tried to make an issue of this question and was not denied, nor attempted to be denied. Again it is said that the whole county demands this relief. Is this so? If it is, how does it happen that there have been two meetings of the Board of County Commissioners and two of the Magistrates since the first of January and nothing said or done about this matter, except at the February meeting there was a motion made by a Justice to ask the General Assembly to abolish this court, and although the motion was made three or four times it never received a second. Now if all that is said be true, why in the name of common sense did these two bodies, being as they are, part of the people, why it is asked, did they pass unnoticed this profound sentiment of the peoples.

This question comes with greater force when it is known that this bill was introduced before the February meeting of these Boards and at the request of the Democratic member from Wake, laid over so as to give him an opportunity to learn the wishes of his people at those meetings, as expressed by the Magistrates of the county?

ONE OF THE MAGISTRATES OF WAKE.

Are Saving's Banks Secure?

This is a question of vital importance to the industrial thrift of our country; and while our legislatures are pondering the question, we would earnestly advise every one to take Hall's Balsam for Coughs and Colds. Warranted to cure. *

A Point for 1880.

Wilmington Star.

The Greensboro North State, Radical, is ridiculing the clamor for retrenchment, and even gets off some doggerel on the occasion. It says "the people are desperately incensed at the so-called representatives," and all because of "their wild notions of economy." If the legislators regard such stuff as this "the people" will indeed be "desperately incensed." Let the legislators fail to cut down expenses, and then see how the Democratic party in 1880 will "catch it" from this very paper that now jeers and berates those who cry economy and retrenchment.

Reade vs. Claxton.

Charles Reade, the novelist, has brought suit against Kate Claxton to restrain her from performing the play called the "Double Marriage," of which he is the author, and also to recover $1,500. He claims that in November an agreement was made between his attorney, Cyril J Searle, and Miss Claxton for the purchase of this play. She was to give $5 000, of which $1,000 was paid upon the execution of the contract. The second $1,000 was to be paid by royalty of $10 for each performance of the play. Miss Claxton produced the play fifty-five times, but did not pay over the $550 due.

Hampton's Condition.

Special to the Charlotte Observer.

COLUMBIA, S. C., February 8.—His attending physician says there is a very small part remaining of the shattered bone in Gov. Hampton's leg. It is imperceptible externally, and is not giving the Governor the slightest inconvenience. He was riding about town to-day in an open carriage, enjoying the mild change in the atmosphere. Dispatches have been received hourly from all parts of the county, since the announcement that there were apprehensions of the necessity of a second amputation, inquiring anxiously as to the patient's condition.

Winter at Niagara.

The winter scenery about Niagara Falls has, perhaps, never before been equaled, though always grand and in keeping with the magnificence of Niagara, and its awful chasm of seething waters above and below the precipice. The frost-work wrought by the great artist's fingers clothes the entire scenery for miles around in his royal handwork of superative beauty, and has spanned the mighty chasm with a bridge more wonderful in its creation of dazzling spars and segments and floors of crystal than the world has ever seen

Another Story of the Telephone.

Chicago Telegraph.

When a Chicago baby gets the croup, and is held up to the telephone in the wall that the doctor, a mile or two across the city, can listen to its breathing through his telephone and ask what its pulse is, and hear its shrill cough from minute to minute, and subscribe for it finally, without ever budging out of his slippers at home, the Paradise of doctors will seem to be reached.

The Death Rate of

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a Doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950 000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known. jan 26-tf.

Tons of Grapes and their Use.

It is astonishing to see the large quantity of grapes of the finest quality, and large clusters, that are each year mashed up for Wine, at the Vineyards of A. Speer, Passaic N. J. Mr. Speer purchases large quantities of grapes, and also raises the Oporto grape from which he makes his celebrated wine, without the admixture of alcohol or spirits. This wine is found by careful analysis to be the best wine in maket for invalids and debilitated persons. It is called Speer's Port Grape Wine, and is sold by Druggists. It is extensively used by the rich families in New York at their evening entertainments. Salesroom 34 Warren street, N. Y. Williams & Haywood, Agents, Raleigh, N. C. feb 9 6t

A Legitimate Triumph in Medicine.

Dread and despair fall upon the community when a terrible epidemic, like the cholera or yellow fever, suddenly desolates our homes; yet, all the while, a more insidious, but no less fatal foe, enters thousands of households every year and carries off the flower of the family in the early flush of manly youth and budding womanhood. People call it presumption, or "decline." It is not, in most cases, the tubercular phthisis or consumption of the lungs, which is the peculiar malady in climates like those of the British Islands and New England, but a general decay or arrest of the vital processes of nutrition All the doctors agree that there is no remedy for this but COD LIVER OIL but they are constantly met by the obstacle of inability on the part of the patient to swallow or retain it. This repulsion is entirely overcome by SCOTT'S EMULSION OF THE OIL with the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA which is agreeable to the taste and an unequalled nutrient and tonic for the body nerve and brain.
